

Between the Lines

▷ GOOD news for theatre lovers. Between the Lines, a play directed by actress director Nandita Das and featuring herself and her husband and environmental activist Subodh Maskara, will be presented on October 6 at the NCPA. The play is about an affluent and educated middle class couple both lawyers who are caught between modernity and tradition and find themselves arguing a case on different sides of the bench. The play has been co-written by Das and is produced by Chotti Productions and will tour India.